

UK Kitchens go Curvacious

Conquest, one of the UK's finest fitted furniture makers introduce a brand new concept in contemporary kitchen design from Italy - simply stunning.

Metris

Metris provides the very latest in kitchen design with elegant curves and graceful lines as you would expect from one of Italy's most renowned kitchen specialists. Each design offers a striking solution born out of visual inspiration and reflects the very latest in contemporary styling and practicality. Conquest is now proud to offer a range of six Metris signature kitchens including the spectacular 'Peninsular Curve' and 'Wave Curve' designs.

Engineered for Practicality, Smart Ergonomics and Intelligent Use of Space

Each Metris design adapts beautifully to any home, blending gorgeous styling with unrelenting attention to detail and some amazing clever ideas. Inspired by tropical atolls, the 'Peninsular Curve' clever design puts everything within reach. Combining maximum work surface with minimum footprint. A smart, contemporary solution to the constant challenge of limited space.

Italy's love of natural form is beautifully captured in the 'Wave Curve'. This time, the idea came from ripples left on the sand by retreating waves. It's soft-flowing, luxuriously textured curves bring the essentials of living within effortless reach. We could go on, but there's so much to tell you about this unique and stunning collection, that in order to complete the whole story and show you how Metris could transform your kitchen and add to your lifestyle. We suggest you call us now on
